

MIT D-LAB SCALE-UPS FELLOWSHIP 2012-2020

39
Fellows

19 women
20 men

59% MIT alumni

49% Founder(s) local to venture market

3 Through venture sale or merger

Geographic Markets

Brazil - Ethiopia - Ghana - Haiti - India - Kenya
Lesaotho - Nepal - Nicaragua - Nigeria - Pakistan
Philippines - Tanzania - Uganda - Zambia

Sectors Represented

11 Health

2 Education

9 Agriculture

2 Recycling

7 Energy

2 Water

4 Livelihood/
Financial Svcs

2 Housing

D-Lab Grants

$830k

MIT D-Lab
Scale-Ups Grants

Funds Raised

$21.5m

Equity, debt, & grant investment raised
by ventures

Revenue

$15.9m

Cumulative revenue from sales since venture start

Jobs Supported

691 536 full time,
155 part time jobs

8,226 Indirect jobs

People Reached

2.25m

People benefiting from products and services

MIT D-Lab Scale-Ups Fellowships have been made possible in part with support from:

NEWMAN'S OWN
FOUNDATION

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

The MIT D-Lab Scale-Ups Fellowship is a one-year accelerator providing $20k, mentorship, networking, and skills-building to social entrepreneurs bringing technology-based products to market at scale in less industrialized economies.